What do you think respect is?

Having respect for someone means you think good things about who that person is or how they act. It means acting in a positive way and showing that you care about others and yourself. By saying 'good morning' to your teacher when you come into school, you are showing respect. By listening to what someone has to say, you are showing respect. It shows that you care about how they feel and want them to appreciate that what they have to say is important. Now watch the above clip from 4:51 – 5.30 to hear a range a people explain what they think respect is.

Draw and write
